

Ohio Wildlife Rehabilitators Association

Support the Ohio Wildlife Rehabilitators Association Today!

The mission of OWRA is to promote wildlife conservation by providing resources to wildlife rehabilitators, educators and the community.

Did you know...

- Wildlife rehabilitation is the humane care and treatment of injured, diseased or orphaned native wild species, for subsequent release to appropriate wild habitats.
- Some of these programs are over 30 years old!
- OWRA is primarily a volunteer organization administered by a 9-member volunteer board of directors.
- OWRA works in cooperation with the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife.

Opportunities OWRA Provides to Wildlife Rehabilitators and Educators

- Annual statewide conference offering sessions on wildlife care and rehabilitation techniques.
- Hands-on workshops featuring basic and advanced training skills.
- Workshops on wildlife rescue and handler safety for oil spills and other mass disasters.
- Sources for information on human health and safety issues.
- Grant opportunities to the annual conference and pre-conference workshops (up to $300).
- Opportunities to visit rehabilitation/education facilities.
- Opportunities to network with rehabilitators and other wildlife professionals.
- Sources for ideas on successful education programs, strategies for cost-cutting and fund raising, and ideas for volunteer recruitment and management.
